43 of 1964, Third
Sch.

(2) In relation to the definition of "new hotel" in this section contained, the expression "suitable public rooms" shall be construed to mean that the public rooms to be provided shall be of such a size and number as the Minister may deem adequate having regard to the size, type and location of the proposed hotel or residential club.

59 of 1965, s. 2.

E.L.A.O., 1974.

3.-(1) Any promoter who desires to erect a new hotel may make application to the Minister for the approval thereof. Every such application shall be in writing and shall contain full particulars of the proposed new hotel and its amenities and an estimate of the cost thereof, and shall be accompanied by a plan showing the proposed location of the new hotel, by plans and drawings of the proposed building or buildings, and by such other information as the Minister may require.

Promoter may apply to Minister.
E.L.A.O., 1974.

(2) The Minister shall cause the application and the particulars and the information submitted to him under subsection (1) to be submitted to the Governor-General.

E.L.A.O., 1974.

4.-(1) The Governor-General may, if satisfied that the erection of the new hotel will be in the best interests of The Bahamas, enter into an agreement with the promoter providing for the following matters or any of them, namely:

Governor-General may
with promoter.

(a) for the refund of all customs duties paid in respect of all materials necessary for the construction, equipping, furnishing and completing of the new hotel which may be imported into The Bahamas purchased or taken out of bond therein by the promoter during such period as the Governor-General may determine;

(b) for the importation into The Bahamas free of all customs duties for such period as the Governor-General may determine by the promoter (or by any contractor employed by the promoter or by any sub-contractor employed by any such contractor) of the construction plant required for the construction, equipping, furnishing and completing of the new hotel upon the furnishing of a bond in a form to be approved of by the Comptroller of Customs with such sureties (if any) as may be required by the Minister of Finance in double the amount of any customs duties which would ordinarily attach on importation thereof for the payment of such customs duties on a date to be fixed by the Minister of Finance,- such bond being conditioned to become null and void if such construction plant shall be re-exported from The Bahamas on or before the date specified in such bond;

(c) for the exemption of the new hotel (and all buildings comprising the same and all additions thereto and the parcel of land upon which the same shall be situate) from the payment of real property taxes and any other taxes now or hereafter imposed on real property for a period of ten years from the date on which the new hotel opens for business;

(d) for the exemption of the new hotel (and all buildings comprising the same and all additions thereto and the parcel of land upon which the same shall be situate) from the payment of real property taxes and any other taxes now or hereafter imposed on real property in excess of twenty dollars per annum for every bedroom therein for the further period of ten years commencing on the first day of the eleventh year after the date on which the new hotel opens for business;

(e) for the exemption from direct taxation upon or against the earnings of or from the new hotel and its amenities, and all additions thereto, and upon or against any rentals paid in respect of the letting or sub-letting thereof for a period of twenty years from the date on which the new hotel opens for business, and if the promoter or operator of such new hotel is a company, then also for the exemption from direct taxation upon or against any dividends declared in respect of the shares of such company or any interest paid by such company in respect of its indebtedness for the said period of twenty years;

(f) for the admission into The Bahamas of key personnel and special workmen both during the construction period and during the operation of the new hotel, subject to the proviso that at all times seventy-five per centum of the total number of persons employed in the construction or operation of the new hotel shall be natives of The Bahamas if such natives of The Bahamas are available to perform the several and respective services required;

(g) that no Governmental restrictions, regulations or conditions shall be made affecting the operation of the new hotel which do not similarly affect all similar hotels and that no legislation will be enacted affecting the operation of the new hotel which does not similarly affect all other similar hotels; and

(h) for such other matters and concessions as the Governor-General shall deem fit and proper having regard to the type and location of the new hotel.

(2) Every such agreement shall contain covenants on the part of the promoter for the construction, equipping, furnishing and opening of the new hotel and for such other matters as the Governor-General shall deem fit and proper having regard to the type and location of the new hotel.

(3) Every such agreement shall contain mutual covenants on the part of the Governor-General and the promoter providing for the following matters, namely:

(a) that the concessions granted by such agreement shall remain in full force and effect so long only as the new hotel shall continue to be used and operated as an hotel or hotel and cottage colony;

(b) that nothing contained in the said agreement shall be deemed to make the promoter liable to pay to the Government any payments in respect of any matter or thing done, executed or happening prior to the date on which such agreement shall cease in respect of which matter or thing payment is waived thereby, or to refund or to repay any customs duties which have been refunded to the promoter under the concessions granted by such agreement except in the circumstances specified in section 11 of this Act;

(c) for the arbitration of all questions and differences between the Governor-General and the promoter;

(d) for the interpretation of such agreement according to the laws of The Bahamas.

(4) The Minister of Finance shall designate public officers to be inspectors for the purposes of this Act, and every such agreement shall provide for such safeguards as the said Minister may require as to inspection of the site of the new hotel, and of the building being erected thereon, and of any storeroom, warehouse or other place under the control of the promoter in which materials intended for use in connection with the new hotel shall be stored, so as to insure that customs duties shall only be refunded in respect of materials used, or which could reasonably be presumed to have been used, in the construction, equipping, furnishing and completing of the new hotel, and for such other safeguards and matters, including the keeping of records, as the Minister of Finance shall deem fit and proper in the circumstances.

(5) The Governor-General may extend the period during which construction plant may remain in The Bahamas so that such construction plant may be employed in the construction of one or more new hotels in respect of which agreements have been entered into by the Governor-General pursuant to the provisions of this section.

Concessions for existing hotels. 6 of 1955, s. 2.

5.-(1) The owner of an existing hotel desiring to obtain the concessions hereinafter granted in this section may make application to the Governor in Council at any time after the coming into operation of this Act up to the thirty-first day of December, 1955, for the approval of such existing hotel for the purposes of this Act. Every such application shall be in writing and shall specify the location of the existing hotel, the number of bedrooms contained therein, and the amount of real property taxes assessed thereon for the year in which such application is made.

(2) Upon being satisfied that such application is in respect of premises comprising an existing hotel within the meaning of this Act, the Governor in Council shall enter into an agreement with the owner thereof providing for the following matters, namely:

(a) that for a period of ten years from the date of such agreement such existing hotel (and all buildings comprising the same and all additions thereto and the parcel of land upon which the same is situate) shall not be subject to the payment in any year of real property taxes or any other tax now or hereafter imposed on real property in excess of the amount at which such existing hotel has been assessed for the year in which such application was made or in excess of five pounds for every bedroom contained therein, whichever is the lesser;

(b) that for the further period of ten years commencing with the first day of the eleventh year after the date of such agreement such existing hotel (and all buildings comprising the same and all additions thereto and the parcel of land upon which the same is situate) shall not be subject to the payment of real property taxes or any other tax now or hereafter imposed on real property in an amount exceeding five pounds per annum for every bedroom contained therein;

(c) that for a period of twenty years from the date of such agreement no taxes shall be levied directly upon or against the earnings of or from such existing hotel and its amenities, and all additions thereto, and upon or against any rentals paid in respect of the letting or sub-letting thereof, and if the owner or operator of such existing hotel is a company, no taxes shall be levied directly upon or against any dividends declared in respect of the shares of such company or any interest paid by such company in respect of its' indebtedness for the said period of twenty years;

(d) that the concessions granted by such agreement shall be granted in consideration of the operation of such existing hotel as an hotel and shall remain in full force and effect so long only as such existing hotel shall continue to be used and operated as an hotel.

(3) The owner of any existing hotel in respect of which an Act has been passed or an agreement has been entered into by the Governor which is still in force at the coming into operation of this Act whereby concessions in respect of real property taxes and direct taxation have been granted shall only be entitled to the benefits of this section to the extent that the concessions granted by such Act or agreement are less extensive than the concessions granted by this section.

Governor-General may enter into agreement with owners or tenants for remodelling and rehabilitating existing hotels. 32 of 1958, s. 2. 18 of 1965, Sch. E.L.A.O., 1974.

6.-(1) The owner or tenant of an existing hotel or a new hotel desiring to rehabilitate, remodel, furnish, refurnish, equip, re-equip, air-condition or extend the same may from time to time submit to the Minister in writing for approval full particulars of such proposed rehabilitation, remodelling, furnishing, refurnishing, equipping, re-equipping, air-conditioning or extension together with an estimate of the cost thereof, and shall supply to the Minister such other information as the Minister may require.

(2) The Minister shall cause the particulars and information submitted to him under subsection (1) to be submitted to the Governor-General.

E.L.A.O., 1974.

(3) If the Governor-General decides that the proposals, in whole or in part, set out in the particulars amount to rehabilitation, remodelling, furnishing, refurnishing, equipping, re-equipping, air-conditioning or extension of the said hotel and that such rehabilitation, remodelling, furnishing, refurnishing, equipping, reequipping, air-conditioning or extension will be in the best interests of The Bahamas, the Governor-General may enter into an agreement with the owner or tenant of such hotel providing for the refund of all customs duties in respect of all materials necessary for the purpose of carrying out all or such part of the proposals as the Governor-General has approved, which may be imported into The Bahamas purchased or taken out of bond therein by the owner or tenant of such hotel during such period as the Governor-General may determine. Every agreement entered into pursuant to the provisions of this subsection shall contain such covenants on the part of the owner or tenant of such hotel and such safeguards as the Governor-General shall deem fit and proper in the circumstances.

(4) Upon completion of any extension to an existing hotel or a new hotel made under an agreement entered into pursuant to the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, the concessions granted by section 5 of this Act shall apply mutatis mutandis to such extensions.

7.-(1) Every agreement made under the provisions of this Act shall be expressed to be made by and between the Governor-General acting for and on behalf of the Government of The Bahamas of the one part and the promoter of the new hotel or the owner or tenant of the existing hotel, as the case may be, of the other part, and shall be executed by the Governor-General under the Public Seal and shall be executed by the promoter or the owner or tenant, if the promoter or the owner or tenant is a person, under his hand and seal, or if the promoter or owner or tenant is a company, under its common seal.

8.-(1) No construction plant imported into The Bahamas under the provisions of this Act shall be used for any purposes other than the construction of the new hotel or the project in respect of which the same was imported except with the consent of the Governor- General.

Penalties for improper use of construction plant.

(2) Every person who contravenes the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence against this Act and shall be liable, on summary conviction, on a first offence to a fine of four hundred dollars and on a second or subsequent offence to a fine of two thousand dollars.

9.-(1) No construction plant imported into The Bahamas pursuant to the provisions of any agreement made under the authority of this Act may be sold, given away or otherwise disposed of within The Bahamas unless the full amount of customs duties ordinarily payable upon the importation thereof shall have been paid into the Treasury, in which case it shall be lawful for the Comptroller of Customs by a memorandum endorsed on the bond furnished upon the importation thereof to cancel the same so far as it relates to such construction plant.

Penalties for disposing of construction plant without payment of duties.

(2) Every person who contravenes the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence against this Act and shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine of two thousand dollars, or to imprisonment for one year, or to both such fine and imprisonment, and the construction plant sold, given away, or otherwise disposed of in contravention of the provisions of this section may be seized and proceeded against in the same manner as goods liable to forfeiture under the Customs Management Act, or any Act passed in amendment thereof or substitution therefor, and the penalty of any bond furnished upon the importation of such construction plant may be recovered as liquidated damages.

duties pursuant to the provisions of any agreement made under the authority of this Act shall be guilty of an offence against this Act, and shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine of two thousand dollars, or to imprisonment for one year, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Penalty for wrongful application of materials.

11.-(1) Any person applying any materials in respect of which customs duties shall have been refunded pursuant to the provisions of any agreement made under the authority of this Act, for any purpose other than for the purpose specified in such agreement shall be guilty of an offence against this Act and shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine of two thousand dollars, or to imprisonment for one year, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

5 of 1987, s. 2.

(2) If the person convicted of an offence under subsection (1) of this section shall be the promoter, or if the promoter is a company, a director thereof, such agreement may be cancelled by the Governor-General, in which case all customs duties refunded to the promoter pursuant to the provisions of any agreement made under the authority of this Act may be recovered from the promoter as liquidated damages

Proceedings to be taken summarily.

12. All proceedings for offences against this Act and for the recovery of any penalties under this Act shall be before a magistrate or justice of the peace having jurisdiction in the place where the offence was committed, and the magistrate or justice of the peace shall dispose thereof summarily.

How proceedings to be prosecuted.

13. All such proceedings may be prosecuted in the name of the Comptroller of Customs, or the Commissioner of Police, or by a revenue officer or peace officer.

Expenses.

14. All expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this Act shall be payable out of the Consolidated Fund by warrant in the usual manner.
