

Teacher Training

The Institute of Tourism and Hotel Management offers an additional Teacher Training program. This can only be attended in addition to the diploma program of Tourism or Hospitality Management at the Institute and runs from October till the end of June.

The additional course has especially been designed:

- for experienced lecturers who are currently teaching in a tourism or hospitality institute and who wish to upgrade their knowledge.
- for professionals of the tourism or hospitality industry who aim to continue their career in the field of education or who are already in a supervisory or leading position and have to train employees within the company.

Content

The course combines a mixture of lectures focussing on didactics, methodologies as well as professional teaching skills. Additionally, different workshops on current topics like new trends in teaching, the use of eLearning, teaching aids and conflict management are also offered.

Besides theory, students will get hands on practical experience by teaching in different schools in Salzburg. During the teaching practice students will be guided and coached by a professional teacher who observes and discusses the student's teaching. They will get first-hand experience in developing individual lesson plans and learn how to demonstrate good classroom management techniques as well as how to deal with different classroom situations.
