PHA Launches Investigation into Alleged NEMS Incident

The Public Hospitals Authority (PHA) has launched an official inquiry into an alleged incident reported to have occurred in a National Emergency Medical Services (NEMS) emergency vehicle involving an expectant mother. The two NEMS crew members have been suspended pending the outcome of the inquiry.

The PHA remains committed to providing quality care in all pre-hospital emergency services and hospital-based services. Patients and their loved ones are encouraged to call Client Feedback Lines to report any concerns or questions they may have. The Princess Margaret Hospital Client Care Line is 242-825-3438 and the Rand Memorial Hospital Client Feedback Line is 242-350-6700 ext. 2079.
