REMINDERS

To contain the spread of COVID-19 residents are reminded of the following:

- weekday curfews remain in effect for specified islands in the Bahamas.
- weekend lockdowns remain in effect for New Providence and Abaco until further notice; and
- employees are encouraged to work from home.

² Due to receipt of negative results from laboratories and a data cleaning exercise, an additional 3907 tests were added to the total number of tests completed in country.

CONCLUSION

Remember everyone has to take personal responsibility to protect themselves, their loved ones, communities and country. COVID-19 will remain with us for some time. Therefore, the public is reminded to practice the following measures to prevent the spread of the virus:

PREVENT THE SPREAD OF COVID-19
