

Legal Consultancy Ministry of Finance, Bahamas Customs Department

The Ministry of Finance is seeking to engage an individual or a firm to provide legal consultancy services with respect to its ongoing Customs Modernization Programme.

These services would involve updating or revising the existing compendium of Customs legislation to ensure compliance with present or pending international treaty obligations (i.e. the Economic Partnership Agreement and the World Trade Organization).

The expected duration of the consultancy is four months.

The selected candidate is expected to be an individual or firm qualified to practice in a Commonwealth jurisdiction, with extensive experience in customs matters.

Interested parties are requested to email expressions of interest, which should include qualifications and resumes of key persons to: tradecommission@bahamas.gov.bs by April 15th, 2009.

Short-listed candidates will be contacted and provided with further details about the tendering process.
