PART II – ADMINISTRATION OF ACT

3. Secretary.

The Secretary shall have responsibility for the administration of this Act.

4. Delegation of functions and powers of Secretary.

The functions and powers of the Secretary are exercisable and may be performed by —

- (a) the Controller of Inland Revenue; and
- (b) officers of the Department of Inland Revenue.

5. Register of licences.

- (1) The Secretary shall maintain an up-to-date register of licensees and shall —
 - (a) on an annual basis, publish a list of the business names of all licensees on an official Government website;
 - (b) make available to a person upon payment of the prescribed fee, an extract or copy from the registry in relation to a licensee containing —
 - (i) the category of the business;
 - (ii) the location of the business;
 - (iii) the contact information of the business.
- (2) An extract or copy of an entry from the register of licensees certified by the Secretary to be a true extract or copy shall, in all legal proceedings, civil or criminal, be received in evidence as proof of issue of a licence in accordance with section 63.

6. Sharing of information.

- (1) Notwithstanding section 64, the Secretary may disclose or authorise disclosure of, documents or information under this Act —
 - (a) to any person, where such disclosure is necessary for the purposes of —
 - (i) the administration and enforcement of this Act;
 - (ii) assisting a Government entity in the administration and enforcement of any other fiscal laws;
 - (b) to a person authorized by any law in force in The Bahamas to receive such information;
 - (c) where such documents or information do not identify a specific person, to a person in the service of the Government in a revenue or statistical department in respect of which such disclosure is necessary for the performance of such person's official duties.
- (2) The Secretary may disclose, or authorise disclosure of, documents or information concerning the affairs of a person in relation to business licence where —

- (a) the person consents in writing that such disclosure may be made to another specified person; or
 - (b) a person claims to be the taxable person or the authorized representative of such taxable person and the Secretary has obtained reasonable assurance of the authenticity of the claim.
- (3) The Secretary may, where he determines it to be necessary or convenient for the exercise of the Secretary's powers under subsection (2) —
- (a) enter into a memorandum of understanding with any Government entity, or the competent authority of the government of another country, setting out the terms and conditions to which any disclosure by the Secretary of documents or information is subject; and
 - (b) disclose documents or information obtained by the Secretary in the exercise and performance of the Secretary's duties and powers under this Act only in accordance with the memorandum of understanding referred to in paragraph (a).
- (4) A person receiving documents or information under subsection (2) must keep such documents or information secret and confidential, except to the minimum extent necessary to achieve the purpose for which the disclosure is made.

7. Power to require information and inspect.

- (1) The Secretary may, for purposes of the administration and enforcement of this Act, by notice in writing require any person to —
- (a) furnish such information, documents and other records as the Secretary specifies in the notice concerning himself or any other person the Secretary considers —
 - (i) is an unlicensed taxable person; or
 - (ii) may otherwise be liable to tax;
 - (b) attend at such time and place as the Secretary specifies in the notice to be examined on oath before the Secretary concerning the tax affairs of himself or any other person;
 - (c) for the purposes of paragraph (b), produce any record or computer in his custody or control that the Secretary may require him to produce; and
 - (d) provide the Secretary with access to the premises where a business activity is carried on by him, or books of account are kept in respect of such business activity, in order to —
 - (i) examine the records or books of account, or any other documents, that relate to the taxable activity;
 - (ii) inspect any raw materials, trading stock, or other assets;

- (iii) inspect the processes used by him, including the methods adopted in recording supplies.
- (2) A person carrying on a business activity, or the employee or agent of such person, who has been given notice under subsection (1)(d) requiring access to premises must —
 - (a) give the Secretary such reasonable assistance in connection with the examination or inspection; and
 - (b) answer, orally or in writing, any questions relating to the examination or inspection.
- (3) A notice pursuant to subsection (1)(c) is adequate and sufficient where the record or computer to be produced is described in the notice with reasonable certainty.
- (4) The Secretary may, where during an examination or inspection it appears that there has not been a correct disclosure of liability to tax filed in a return or otherwise —
 - (a) take possession of books of account, or other documents or computer records, for further examination; and
 - (b) retain or make copies of, or take extracts from, the books, documents, or computer records for any of the purposes of this Act.
- (5) Without prejudice to the generality of the Secretary's powers under subsection (1), the Secretary may by notice in writing, require a financial institution to —
 - (a) furnish the Secretary with details of any facility or other assets that may be held by or on behalf of a taxable or related person including copies of any banking statements or other facility statements, transaction records or statement of assets;
 - (b) permit the Secretary, to inspect the records of the financial institution in relation to the facility or assets of a taxable or related person; and
 - (c) cause an officer of the financial institution to attend before the Secretary to give evidence in respect of any facility or other asset that are held by that financial institution by or on behalf of a taxable or related person.
- (6) Subsection (5) has effect notwithstanding any other law to the contrary relating to privilege, public interest, bank confidentiality, or bank secrecy.
- (7) No person must use information furnished, or records or documents produced, under this section for a purpose other than that for which they were furnished or produced.
- (8) For the purposes of this section, “financial institution”, “facility” and “facility holder” have the meanings assigned in section 2 of the Financial Transactions Reporting Act, 2018 (No. 5 of 2018).

- (g) revenue accruing from transactions between members of a group under section 34 which fall within the exclusions specified in Part B of the Third Schedule;
 - (h) revenue derived from services provided by a business to an entity where —
 - (i) the ultimate beneficial owner of ninety per centum of the shares or equivalent ownership interest in both the business and the entity is the same person; and
 - (ii) the entity is not a business;
 - (i) revenue derived from investment in government securities; and
 - (j) any other exclusion as the Minister may by order allow.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (1), revenue accrues to a person from his business activities when the revenue is earned, due or received, whichever is earliest.
- (5) An amount received for or on behalf of a principal in an agency relationship —
- (a) forms a part of the turnover of the principal, except where the principal is a non-resident; and
 - (b) does not include fees or commission on sales or any similar amount designed to remunerate the agent for its role or involvement in the sale or transaction.
- (6) An agency relationship does not exist where —
- (a) the agent has a proprietary interest in the goods or services being provided;
 - (b) the agent has control over the pricing of the goods or services;
 - (c) the parties do not describe their relationship as that of principal and agent; and
 - (d) the revenues generated by the agent exceeds or is calculated on a basis other than a predetermined agency fee or commission on sales or similar amount.

33. Computation of turnover in respect of non-arm's length transaction.

- (1) Where the Secretary is of the opinion that —
- (a) any transaction carried out between related persons was carried out for a consideration substantially different from that obtainable at arm's length or for no consideration; and
 - (b) the effect of this would be to reduce the amount of tax payable by any person, the Secretary may, for the purposes of assessing that person's tax liability, treat the transaction as having been carried out for such consideration as would in his opinion have been obtainable at arm's length.

- (2) Subsection (1) shall not apply if the person shows to the satisfaction of the Secretary that —
 - (a) the transaction did not have as its object, or one of its objects, the avoidance of tax; and
 - (b) the consideration for which the transaction was carried out was of a value not less than the cost incurred in providing the subject-matter of the transaction (including a reasonable sum for overheads).
- (3) Without prejudice to subsection (1), where the Secretary has reason to believe that any transaction carried out for a consideration substantially different from that obtainable at arm's length, or for no consideration, was so carried out with the object of reducing the amount of tax payable by any person, or for purposes including that object, he may treat the transaction as having been carried out for consideration as could in his opinion have been obtainable at arm's length.

34. Rates of tax.

- (1) A business shall pay a tax according to the appropriate rates as set out in the Second Schedule.
- (2) A subsidiary shall pay tax at the same rate as applies to its parent company, except where —
 - (a) the parent company is subject to a lower rate of tax than the subsidiary;
 - (b) both the subsidiary and the parent company are subject to a higher rate of tax under subsection (3).
- (3) Where a licensee or other taxable person is registered as part of a group under section 23(7) of the Value Added Tax Act, 2014 (No. 32 of 2014) —
 - (a) the a licensee or other taxable person shall pay tax at a rate based on the combined turnover of all the members of the group and the transactions, described within the categories in Part A of the Third Schedule, shall be included in the calculation of turnover of the group;
 - (b) the members of the group are not required to account for transactions between members of the group which are described within categories in Part B of the Third Schedule;
 - (c) each member of the group is jointly and severally liable where a member of the group contravenes or fails to comply with a provision or requirement of this Act.

- (4) Where a tax is outstanding in respect of any year, the tax that a business is liable to pay for that year shall be calculated according to the rate that was in force in the year in which that tax was due.
- (5) Where a person carries on —
 - (a) more than one business activity; or
 - (b) business from more than one location,that operates as or forms a part of the same legal entity, the business activities shall be treated as one business for the purpose of establishing turnover and the tax payable by the person.
- (6) The Minister may by order amend the Second Schedule and the Third Schedule.

35. Actual tax and estimated tax.

- (1) The estimated tax payable in a year shall be calculated by a business based on the turnover of the business in the immediately preceding year.
- (2) A licensee may elect to pay the estimated tax in full or in instalments in accordance with subsection (6).
- (3) Where the actual tax for the year is less than the estimated tax paid by a licensee, the amount overpaid shall be carried forward and treated as a credit towards tax payable for the succeeding year.
- (4) A licensee who wishes to pay the estimated tax for any year in instalments must notify the Secretary in writing at the time of application for the renewal of his licence.
- (5) A licensee who in any year does not notify the Secretary by the time of renewal of his licence shall be deemed to have selected to pay the estimated tax in full by the 31st March.
- (6) A licensee who is approved by the Secretary to pay in instalments shall pay —
 - (a) the first instalment by the 31st day of March;
 - (b) the second instalment by the 30th day of June;
 - (c) the third instalment by the 30th day of September; and
 - (d) the fourth instalment by the 31st day of December.
- (7) For the purpose of this section —

“estimated tax” for any year means tax computed by applying the applicable rate under section 34 to the estimated turnover for that year;

“estimated turnover” for any year means turnover for the prior year;

“unpaid tax” means the amount by which the actual tax exceeds the estimated tax.

36. Fees for late filings and payment.

- (1) Every taxable person who fails to make an application for renewal, file a return or make payments by the dates prescribed in section 26(3), shall be liable to pay the fees set out in the Fourth Schedule.
- (2) Any interest or fee payable under this section is recoverable as if it were tax due and payable under this Act.
- (3) The Minister may by order, amend the Fourth Schedule.

37. Advance tax rulings.

- (1) The Secretary may, on application by a person in the prescribed form, issue an advance tax ruling setting out the Secretary's position regarding the application of the Act to that person with respect to a transaction, venture or other activity proposed or entered into by that person.
- (2) An advance tax ruling shall not be provided —
 - (a) where the applicant has not provided all the information determined by the Secretary to be necessary;
 - (b) where the Secretary is of the opinion that there are no genuine points of uncertainty as to the person's tax liability;
 - (c) where the applicant is asking the Secretary to give tax planning advice;
 - (d) where the request relates to transactions which, in the Secretary's view, are for the purposes of avoiding tax;
 - (e) in any other circumstances outlined by the Secretary in rules.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), an advance tax ruling by the Secretary —
 - (a) is binding on the Secretary for the time period determined by the Secretary and stated in the ruling;
 - (b) may state a time period during which the ruling is binding on the applicant, to include transactions commenced or completed prior to the application being made for the ruling.
- (4) Where the Secretary finds that an advance ruling issued by him is based on false, misleading or incorrect information provided by the applicant, the Secretary shall declare that ruling void and of no effect.

38. Exemptions.

No annual licence tax shall be payable under this Act by any person in respect of a business carried on in or from within The Bahamas —

- (a) by ecclesiastical, charitable or cultural institutions or organizations registered as non-profit entities within The Bahamas;

39. Rules relating to assessments.

- (1) Subject to subsection (3), the Secretary may at any time make, or cause to be made, an assessment of the business activity of a person in order to determine such person's liability to pay tax under this Act where —
 - (a) a licensee fails to file a return within the time period required under section 26(3);
 - (b) the Secretary is not satisfied that a return filed by a licensee is accurate or reasonable;
 - (c) no notice of inactivation or cessation has been given by a business;
 - (d) no money has been tendered for the renewal of an annual business licence; or
 - (e) the Secretary, in any other case, has reason to believe that a person is liable to pay taxes under this Act.
- (2) An assessment pursuant to subsection (1)(a) or (b), where the default was not due to the neglect, carelessness, fraud or wilful default of the person filing or submitting the return or declaration, must be made —
 - (a) in the case of an annual business licence, within five years after the date of issue of the licence;
 - (b) in the case of a temporary licence, within two years of the completion of the project; or
 - (c) where an audit is ordered by the Secretary within the period referred to in paragraph (a) or (b) —

- (i) in the case of an annual business licence, within five years after the completion of the audit;
 - (ii) in the case of a temporary licence, within two years after completion of the audit.
- (3) An admission by a licensee of a misstatement in a return filed by such licensee shall be deemed to establish that the default was due to neglect, carelessness, fraud, wilful default, or wilful misstatement.
- (4) The Secretary may at any time make, or cause to be made, an assessment of a person's liability to pay tax where —
 - (a) a person fails to comply with a notice under section 50, or makes any disposition of money, property or arrangement that contradicts the purpose of such notice;
 - (b) a receiver fails to comply with section 44;
 - (c) a representative commits an act under section 45(3);
 - (d) subject to the provisions of section 43, a company fails to pay the amount of tax payable by the company within the time prescribed and such person was, at the time the company was liable to pay the amount of tax, a director or other similar officer of the company or acted, or purported to act, in such a capacity;
 - (e) where an amount is paid to, or applied to a liability of, a person as a credit or refund under this Act and the person is not entitled to the credit or refund, or the amount paid or applied exceeds the credit or refund to which the person is entitled.
- (5) The Secretary must, where he makes an assessment under this section, serve a notice of assessment on the person assessed specifying the —
 - (a) amount of tax payable by the person assessed;
 - (b) time, place, and manner of objecting to the assessment.
- (6) An assessment made pursuant to subsection (1) shall be based on the information available to the Secretary and the Secretary's reasonable estimate of the taxes properly due and payable by the licensee or person.
- (7) The Secretary may, for the purpose of making an assessment or for the exercise of any other power or duty under this Act, audit the accounts of a business.
- (8) The Secretary may, within three years after service of a notice of assessment —
 - (a) amend an assessment, as the Secretary considers necessary; and
 - (b) serve a written notice as prescribed of the amended assessment on the person assessed.
- (9) For the purposes of this Act —
 - (a) an assessment includes an amended assessment;

- (b) tax charged under this Act includes an amount of tax assessed as due and payable by the Secretary in an assessment under this section.
- (10) The original notice or a copy certified by the Secretary, of a notice of assessment is receivable in any proceedings as conclusive evidence that —
 - (a) the assessment is a true assessment duly made; and
 - (b) except in appeal proceedings before the Tax Appeal Commission, the amount and all particulars in the notice are correct.
- (11) A notice of assessment or other document purported to be made, issued, or executed under this Act shall not be quashed, or deemed to be void or voidable, for want of form or by reason of mistake, defect or omission where —
 - (a) the assessment or other document is in substance and effect in conformity with this Act; and
 - (b) the person assessed or intended to be assessed, or affected by the document, is identified in the assessment or document.

40. Secretary may audit accounts.

- (1) The Secretary may, for the purposes of making an assessment or the exercise of any other power or duty under this Act, carry out or cause to be carried out, an audit of the accounts of a taxable person or any other person.
- (2) The Secretary shall have power at the time of the audit —
 - (a) to summon any person whom he has reason to believe can give material information regarding any transaction relating to the business or the management of its affairs and require such person to give such information, and answer questions, orally or in writing; and
 - (b) to require the production of any book, record or document relating to the affairs of the business by any person in possession of such book or document.
- (3) The Secretary may appoint a firm of public accountants or any public accountant licensed to practice under the Bahamas Institute of Chartered Accountants, 2015 (No. 13 of 2015) to conduct an audit under subsection (1).
- (4) The costs associated with an audit carried out under subsection (3) shall be borne by the business.

41. Notice of objection.

- (1) A person aggrieved by any of the following decisions by the Secretary in respect of such person —
 - (a) an assessment of tax under section 39; or
 - (b) the imposition of a fixed penalty under section 53;
 - (c) a notice of assessment made in accordance with section 43;
 - (d) the seizure of any good or asset in accordance with section 54;
 - (e) a decision made by the Secretary regarding a claim for a refund under section 61,may lodge with the Secretary an objection to the decision within thirty calendar days after the date of service of the notice of the decision on such person.
- (2) An objection must —
 - (a) be made by notice in writing in the form and manner prescribed by the Secretary;
 - (b) specify in detail the grounds on which the objection is made; and
 - (c) where it is an objection to an assessment of tax or a fixed penalty, be accompanied by payment of the total amount of tax or fixed penalty assessed, or security for such amount in a form acceptable to the Secretary, at the time the objection is lodged.
- (3) The Secretary may accept an objection lodged after the time specified in subsection (2) where the Secretary is satisfied that there has been no unreasonable delay on the part of a person in lodging the objection due to —
 - (a) absence from The Bahamas;
 - (b) sickness; or
 - (c) other reasonable cause.
- (4) An objection that is based solely on an error of calculation in a return filed with the Secretary does not suspend the objector's obligation to pay the amount assessed.
- (5) The burden of proof that the assessment complained of is incorrect lies with the person making the objection.
- (6) On the receipt of an objection under this section, the Secretary may require the objector to deliver, if he has not already done so, within thirty days or such longer period as the Secretary may permit —
 - (a) a return for the years of assessment which in the opinion of the Secretary are affected by the notice of objection;
 - (b) such other particulars as the Secretary may deem necessary with respect to the turnover of the business and to produce all books, documents and other records in his custody or under his control relating to such turnover.

- (7) The Secretary may summon any person who he thinks is able to give evidence regarding the assessment to attend before him and may examine such person on oath or otherwise.
- (8) Any person who, without lawful excuse —
 - (a) refuses or neglects to attend or to give evidence in pursuance of a notice served on him under subsection (6), or to produce any books, documents or other records which he is required to produce under the said subsection;
 - (b) refuses to answer any question touching the matters under consideration in the objection, or who knowingly or wilfully gives any false evidence before the Secretary, commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to both such fine and imprisonment.
- (9) Where the objector refuses or neglects to deliver the return or particulars or to produce any books, documents or other records, as the case may be, required by the Secretary under subsection (5), within the period prescribed by or pursuant to that subsection, the objection lodged by such person shall cease to have effect and the assessment as made shall be final and conclusive for all purposes of this Act as regards such person.
- (10) The Secretary must, within ninety calendar days after an objection is lodged, consider the objection and after such consideration serve a notice in writing as prescribed on the objector specifying the Secretary's decision to —
 - (a) allow the objection, in whole or in part; or
 - (b) disallow the objection.
- (11) An objector may, where ninety calendar days have passed since the objection was lodged and the Secretary has not served a notice in writing on the objector as referred to in subsection (10), appeal against the decision to the Tax Appeal Commission as if the Secretary had made a decision to disallow the objection.
- (12) A person who fails to file an objection to an appealable decision under this section has no further right of objection or appeal under this Act.
- (13) A notice under subsection (7) of the Secretary's decision is conclusive evidence that the decision has been made and, subject to such further rights of appeal the objector may have, that the decision is correct.
- (14) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section or section 5 of the Tax Appeal Commission Act, 2020 (No. 3 of 2020), a person shall not, in respect of an issue for which the right of objection or appeal has been waived in writing by the person —

- (a) object to the Secretary; or
- (b) appeal to the Tax Appeal Commission.

LIABILITY TO PAY TAX

42. Directors of unincorporated bodies.

For the purposes of this Act —

- (a) a liability or obligation imposed by or under this Act or the regulations on a firm carrying on a business as such, shall be imposed jointly and severally on each of the persons who are directors of the firm at the time a liability or obligation is imposed;
- (c) the existence of a firm, and a business carried on by such firm, is not affected by any change in the members or directors of the firm;
- (d) a document served on a firm is treated as served on the firm and the directors of the firm;

- (f) a director of a firm means —
 - (i) a partner of a partnership;
 - (ii) a participant in a joint venture;
 - (iii) a trustee of a trust; and
 - (iv) in any other case —
 - (aa) a person who holds office in the firm as a chairman, president, treasurer, secretary, or any other similar office;
 - (bb) where there is no director of the firm, a member of a committee responsible for management of the affairs of the firm; or
 - (cc) where (aa) or (bb) does not apply, a member of the firm.

43. Liability of a director or similar officer of a company to pay tax.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), a person is jointly and severally liable together with a company to pay tax payable by the company under this Act, together with interest and penalties in relation to such tax, where —
 - (a) the company fails to pay an amount of tax payable by the company within the time prescribed; and
 - (b) such person was at the time the company was liable to pay the amount of tax a director or other similar officer of the company or acted, or purported to act, in such a capacity.

- (2) A person referred to in subsection (1)(b) is not liable, and may not be assessed for tax where the Secretary is satisfied that such person exercised the degree of care, diligence, and skill that a reasonably prudent person would have exercised in order to prevent the failure by the company to pay the amount of tax payable within the prescribed time.
- (3) The Secretary must serve on a person liable under subsection (1) a notice of assessment specifying the —
 - (a) amount of the tax, together with any interest, fine or other penalty, assessed;
 - (b) time, place, and manner of objecting to the assessment.
- (4) A person served with a notice of assessment pursuant to subsection (3) may object to the decision under section 41.
- (5) The Secretary may not assess a person for an amount of tax payable by such person under this section where —
 - (a) more than seven years have passed since the filing of the return relating to the amount concerned; or
 - (b) in the case where an assessment was made by the Secretary under section 39, more than seven years have passed since the date of the assessment relating to the amount.
- (6) A person who pays an amount of tax payable by a company under this section, in whole or in part, is entitled to contribution in respect of the amount so paid from the other persons who are liable to pay the amount under subsection (1).

44. Receivers and duties of receivers.

- (1) In this section, a receiver is a person who in relation to an asset within The Bahamas is —
 - (a) a liquidator of a company;
 - (b) a judicial receiver or a receiver appointed out of court;
 - (c) a trustee for a person adjudged bankrupt;
 - (d) a mortgagee in possession;
 - (e) a guardian, conservator or any other person conducting business on behalf of a person legally incapacitated; or
 - (f) a personal representative, an executor or administrator of the estate of a deceased person.
- (2) A receiver must notify the Secretary in writing within fourteen calendar days after the person is appointed receiver, or takes possession of an asset of a taxable person, whichever event occurs first.
- (3) The Secretary may in writing notify a receiver of the amount which appears to the Secretary to be sufficient to provide for any tax which is or will become payable by the person whose assets are in the possession of the receiver.

- (4) A receiver —
 - (a) must set aside out of the assets or proceeds of sale of an asset —
 - (i) the amount notified by the Secretary under subsection (3);
 - (ii) such lesser amount as the Secretary may subsequently agree with the receiver;
 - (b) is liable, to the extent of the amount set aside, for the tax of the person who owned the asset; and
 - (c) notwithstanding any provision of this section, may pay any debt that has priority over the tax referred to in this section.
- (5) A receiver is personally liable to the extent of any amount required to be set aside under subsection (4) for the tax referred to in subsection (3) where, and to the extent that, the receiver fails to comply with the requirements of this section.

45. Secretary has power to declare representative of a taxable person.

- (1) Where the Secretary considers it necessary or desirable to do so for the administration and enforcement of this Act, the Secretary may declare a person referred to in subsection (5), to be a representative of a taxable person in the form and manner prescribed in regulations.
- (2) A person who is declared by the Secretary under subsection (1), to be the representative of a taxable person is deemed to be such representative and must perform the duties imposed by this Act on the taxable person, including the duty to apply for and renew a licence and pay taxes under this Act.
- (3) A representative is personally liable, in his representative capacity, for the payment of tax payable where the representative during the time the amount remains unpaid —
 - (a) alienates, charges, or disposes of any money received or accrued in respect of which the tax is payable;
 - (b) disposes of or parts with any fund or money belonging to the business whose representative he is, and from or out of which such tax could legally have been paid, which —
 - (i) is in the possession of the representative; or
 - (ii) comes to the representative after the tax becomes payable.
- (4) Notwithstanding any provision of this section, a taxable person must perform any duty imposed under this Act on a taxable person which a representative declared under this section has failed to perform.
- (5) In this section, a “representative” in relation to a business is —

- (a) the financial controller or the designated officer of a company, other than a company in liquidation;
- (b) a member of the committee of management of a firm;
- (c) a person who is responsible to account for the receipt and payment of money or funds on behalf of a company or a firm, where paragraphs (a) and (b) do not apply;

 - (ii) the receipt and payment of public funds;
 - (iii) the receipt and payment of funds voted by Parliament to a statutory body;
- (e) a partner in a partnership;
- (f) a trustee of a trust;
- (g) a liquidator of a company;
- (h) a person controlling the affairs of a resident or non-resident of The Bahamas, including a manager of a business carried on by the resident or non-resident of The Bahamas.

46. Liability of transferee after non-arm's length transfer.

- (1) If a taxable person transfers money or other property, either directly or indirectly, by any means including by means of a trust, to or for the benefit of another person —
 - (a) with whom the transferor, at the time of the transfer, is not dealing at arm's length; or
 - (b) who is under the age of eighteen years,the transferee is liable, upon assessment under section 39, for the transferor's tax debt to the extent provided for in subsection (2), unless the transferor establishes that he was not a tax debtor at the time of the transfer or did not make the transfer in anticipation of becoming liable for another person's existing tax debt.
- (2) The limit of the transferee's liability under subsection (1) is the total of —
 - (a) the lesser of —
 - (i) the transferor's tax debt at the time of the transfer and any tax debt of the transferor assessed after the time of the transfer in respect of a tax liability that arose before the time of the transfer; and
 - (ii) the amount, if any, by which the fair market value of the transferred property, including any transferred money, at the time of the transfer exceeds the fair market value at that time

- of the consideration given by the transferee for the transfer;
and
- (b) interest payable on that amount, calculated at the same rate that applies to the transferor's tax debt —
 - (i) from the date of the transfer to the date of payment, or
 - (ii) if the transferor's debt arose only upon an assessment under section 39 that was made after the date of the transfer, from the date of the assessment to the date of payment.
- (3) A payment in accordance with this section —
- (a) by the transferee in respect of the transferor's tax debt reduces the transferor's and the transferee's liability for the transferor's tax debt;
 - (b) by the transferor reduces the transferee's liability only to the extent that it reduces the transferor's tax debt below the amount for which the transferee is liable.
- (4) Except to the extent that the transferor's tax debt is reduced by a payment by the transferee, nothing in this section affects the transferor's liability for the tax debt.

47. Death or insolvency of taxable person.

- (1) Where after the death of a taxable person, or the sequestration of the estate of that person, a business previously carried on by the deceased is carried on after his death, by or on behalf of his personal representative, executor or administrator, that person shall be treated under this Act, as the taxable person in respect of the business.
- (2) Where a taxable person becomes insolvent or on the sequestration of his estate, a business previously carried on by him is continued after his insolvency by or on behalf of a liquidator, receiver, trustee, guardian or conservator, that person shall be treated under this Act, as the taxable person in respect of the business.

48. Mortgagee in possession, trustee.

- (1) A mortgagee in possession of land or other property —
 - (a) previously mortgaged by a mortgagor who is a taxable person; and
 - (b) receiving rents and profits from the land or other property; or
 - (c) who carries on any other business in relation to the land or other property,is the taxable person carrying on the business —
 - (i) from the date the mortgagee took possession of the land or other property;

- (ii) until such time as the mortgagee ceases to be in possession of the land or other property.
- (2) A person who is a trustee in more than one capacity, is, under this Act, a separate person in relation to each capacity.

ENFORCEMENT AND RECOVERY OF TAX

49. Secretary has lien on assets.

- (1) The Secretary has, from the date on which tax becomes due and payable under this Act until the date the tax is paid, a lien on the assets in the possession or control of the Department of Inland Revenue, the Customs Department or any other Government entity —
 - (a) of the person liable to pay the tax;
 - (b) of any related person where the Secretary reasonably believes that the person liable to pay the tax —
 - (i) beneficially owns or enjoys the asset; and
 - (ii) transferred legal ownership of the asset to the related person in order to avoid payment of the tax.
- (2) A lien referred to in subsection (1) shall rank in priority to every other security interest in the asset subject to the lien.

50. Recovery of tax from agent.

The Secretary may, by notice in writing, designate a person to act as the agent of a taxable person where the taxable person fails to pay tax by the due date and the person designated to act as agent —

- (a) owes or may owe money to the taxable person;
 - (b) holds or may subsequently hold money for or on account of the taxable person;
 - (c) has authority from some other person to pay money to the taxable person; or
 - (d) has possession of the property of the taxable person.
- (2) A person designated as the agent of a taxable person in accordance with subsection (1) shall be required to pay the money or deliver the property specified in the notice to the Secretary —
 - (a) in the case of money or property due or held, within the time stated in the notice;
 - (b) in the case of money or property to become due or held, within two calendar days of the date on which —
 - (i) the money becomes due; or

- (ii) the money or property is held in any of the circumstances referred to in subsection (1).
- (3) The time stated in the notice under subsection (1) shall not exceed fifteen calendar days from the date of service of the notice, so, however, that the Secretary may, in his discretion, permit an agent to pay the money specified in the notice in instalments.
- (4) The Secretary must serve a copy of the notice referred to in subsection (1) on the person liable to pay tax.
- (5) An agent under this section who makes a payment or delivers property to the Secretary pursuant to subsection (2) is treated as having acted under the authority of the person liable to pay the tax, and of all other persons concerned, and such payment or property is treated in the hands of the Secretary as it were due under this Act.
- (6) Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, this section has effect and a person required to be an agent under subsection (1) incurs no liability in complying with the provisions of subsection (2).

51. Recovery of bond.

Where the holder of a temporary licence fails to pay tax, the Secretary may satisfy the tax by recovering the amount from the bond.

52. Temporary closure of business.

- (1) Without prejudice to any other penalty which may be imposed for contravention of, or non-compliance with, any provision of this Act, the Secretary may apply to the Supreme Court for an order to close one or more business premises of a person who has repeatedly —
 - (a) failed to apply for, or renew, a licence;
 - (b) failing to file any return;
 - (c) failed to pay tax when due under any provision of this Act; or
 - (d) contravened any other provision of this Act.
- (2) The Secretary may, where the court grants an order for temporary closure pursuant to subsection (1), use such reasonable methods or secure such police assistance as may be necessary to execute the order in respect of the business premises specified in the order including the use of locks, fencing, boarding, or other appropriate methods.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1), a repeated contravention or non-compliance is one that is committed by a person within one year of a previous contravention or noncompliance.

- (4) The Secretary, shall prior to making an application under subsection (1), issue to the licensee, a warning letter in accordance with section 53 stating that —
 - (a) a specified contravention or non-compliance referred to in of subsection (1)(a)-(c) of this section has been committed more than once within the preceding year; and
 - (b) a repetition of the specified contravention or noncompliance may result in closure of one or more of such person’s business premises under this section.

53. Fixed penalty and warning letters.

- (1) The Minister may in regulations prescribe fixed penalties which may be imposed by the Secretary for contraventions of this Act.
- (2) The Secretary may, in accordance with the regulations, automatically apply a fixed penalty under subsection (1) upon commission of a prescribed contravention by a person and thereupon such penalty shall become immediately due and payable by the person.
- (3) Regulations made by the Minister pursuant to subsection (1) —
 - (a) shall prescribe the maximum amount of the fixed penalty that is to be applied by the Secretary for a prescribed contravention;
 - (b) may not prescribe for a single contravention a fixed penalty exceeding one hundred fifty thousand dollars.
- (4) A person aggrieved by the decision of the Secretary to apply a fixed penalty under this section may object or appeal the decision under sections 41 and 66 respectively.
- (5) The Secretary may, where a person is in contravention of, or is not compliant with a provision of this Act, the regulations or the Rules, issue a warning letter to such person specifying the act or omission giving rise to the contravention or non-compliance and the remedy requested by the Secretary.
- (6) A warning letter under subsection (5) must be kept by the Secretary on the file of the taxable person, or other person, liable for the contravention or non-compliance.
- (7) The Secretary may not make an application to a court under section 52 to close the business premises of a person unless the Secretary has issued to such person a warning letter in accordance with subsection (4) of that section.
- (8) The Secretary may, where he decides a fixed penalty imposed under this section was imposed in error, remit all or part of such penalty and such remission may be conditional or unconditional.

54. Seizure of goods.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Secretary may seize goods or assets where the Secretary has reasonable grounds to believe that —
 - (a) the goods comprise an input or inventory of a business; or
 - (b) the assets are owned by the business; and
 - (c) tax payable by the business has not been or will not be paid.
- (2) The Secretary shall ensure that the value of the goods or assets seized under this section is proportionate to the tax that is or will become due and payable by the business to which the seizure relates.
- (3) A good or asset seized pursuant to subsection (1) may in the discretion of the Secretary —
 - (a) be sold by public auction; or
 - (b) be put into the service of the Government.
- (4) Goods or assets seized pursuant to subsection (1) must be stored in a place approved by the Secretary for the storage of such goods or assets.
- (5) Subject to subsection (6), the Secretary must in respect of goods or an assets seized under this section, serve on the owner or the person with custody or control immediately before seizure, a notice in writing within fourteen days after the seizure —
 - (a) identifying the goods or assets;
 - (b) stating that the goods or assets have been seized under authority of this section and the reason for the seizure; and
 - (c) stating the terms for recovery of the goods or assets.
- (6) A notice under subsection (5) must be served where —
 - (a) a person claiming the goods or assets have provided the Secretary with sufficient information to enable service of the notice on him; or
 - (b) after making reasonable inquiries, the Secretary has sufficient information to identify the person on whom the notice should be served.
- (7) The Secretary must, where service of a notice pursuant to subsection (6) is not possible, post a notice of seizure in a conspicuous place in or on the premises from which the goods or assets were seized.
- (8) The Secretary shall, where furnished with evidence showing that a good or assets seized does not belong to the business to which the seizure relates, forthwith return the good or asset to the actual owner.
- (9) Subject to subsection (10), the Secretary may authorise delivery of goods or asset seized under subsection (1) to the person on whom a notice of seizure has been served where such person —

- (a) pays the tax reported by the person or assessed by the Secretary to be due and payable or that will become due and payable in respect of the business; or
 - (b) gives security, acceptable to the Secretary, for the payment of tax that is or will become due and payable by the business.
- (10) The Secretary may detain goods or assets seized under this section —
 - (a) in the case of perishable goods, for such period as the Secretary considers reasonable having regard to the condition of the goods;
 - (b) in any other case, until the later of ten working days after —
 - (i) the seizure of the goods or assets; or
 - (ii) the due date for payment of the tax.
- (11) The Secretary may —
 - (a) sell the goods or assets, after expiry of the detention period referred to in subsection (10), in accordance with subsection (3) and apply the proceeds of sale in order of priority towards the —
 - (i) costs related to seizure, the tax payable by the business owning the goods; and
 - (ii) restoration of the remainder of the proceeds, if any, to the person liable to pay tax;
 - (b) where the proceeds of sale are not sufficient to pay the Secretary's costs and the tax payable in full, proceed in accordance with this Act for the balance of tax owed.
- (12) The Secretary shall, where the proceeds of sale of any good or asset exceeds the costs relating to the seizure and the outstanding tax, deposit the remainder of the proceeds of the sale in an interest bearing account.
- (13) A person who is aggrieved by the decision of the Secretary to seize, detain or sell goods under this section may object or appeal the decision under sections 41 and 66 respectively.
- (14) Any person who prevents, impedes or interfere in any way with the Secretary in the exercise of the Secretary's powers under this section commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

55. Evasion of tax by use of scheme.

Where the Secretary has reasonable grounds to believe that a scheme has been entered into or carried out and —

- (a) a person in the scheme has obtained a tax benefit in connection with the scheme in a manner that constitutes an abuse of this Act; and

- (b) having regard to the substance of the scheme, it is reasonable to conclude that the person, or one of the persons, who entered into or carried out the scheme did so for the purpose of enabling the person referred to in paragraph (a) to obtain the tax benefit, the Secretary may determine the liability of the person who has obtained the tax benefit —

- (i) as if the scheme had not been entered into or carried out; or
- (ii) in such manner as the Secretary, having regard to the circumstances of the case, considers appropriate for the prevention or reduction of the tax benefit.

56. Tax may be recovered.

All taxes payable under this Act may be sued for, recovered, and payment enforced by or on behalf of the Secretary.

PART V – OFFENCES AND PENALTIES

- (7) The occupier and every other person who sells liquor, unless it appears to the magistrate that the liquor was not deposited on the premises for the purpose of being sold in such premises, commits an offence and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars.
- (8) All liquor found on any search or entry of premises not licensed for the sale of liquor, together with all vessels used for holding or measuring such liquor, or used in connection with the sale of such liquor, shall upon any conviction for an offence under this section be forfeited.
- (9) The Commissioner of Police or any peace officer authorised by him may enter and remain on any premises licensed under this Act for so long as is necessary for the purpose of —
 - (a) ascertaining that the terms and conditions of the licence are being complied with;
 - (b) ensuring that order and decorum are being maintained; and

- (c) generally, preventing or detecting the violation of any licence issued in relation to the premises.

PART VI – MISCELLANEOUS

61. Refunds.

- (1) A person may be eligible for a refund of tax where —
 - (a) the actual tax payable by a licensee for a year of assessment is less than the estimated tax paid for such year;
 - (b) the value of the contract in respect of which a temporary licence was issued was reduced; or
 - (c) the amount of tax paid by a person otherwise exceeds the amount chargeable to tax under this Act.
- (2) A person who is eligible for a refund under subsection (1) shall apply in writing in the prescribed manner for a refund (“a claim”) and such claim shall be made within three years after the date the tax was overpaid.
- (3) Where a licensee has failed to file an application for renewal of his licence or a return for any year of assessment as required under this Act, the Secretary may withhold payment of any amount refundable under this section until the licensee files the return as required.
- (4) The Secretary must serve on a claimant for refund, a notice in writing of the Secretary's decision in respect of the claim —
 - (a) within thirty calendar days of the Secretary receiving the claim; or
 - (b) where the Secretary orders an audit of the claim, within ten calendar days of completion of the audit.
- (5) Where the Secretary is satisfied that a claim is legitimately made he shall —
 - (a) apply the amount of the refund claimed in reduction of —
 - (i) any tax, interest, late fee or penalty payable by the claimant under this Act; and
 - (ii) any other tax, interest, late fee or penalty payable by the claimant to the Government; and
 - (b) after applying the refund in accordance with paragraph (a), refund any excess remaining to the claimant.
